

College of Pharmacy University of Nebraska Medical Center

Courtney V. Fletcher, Pharm.D.
Dean, College of Pharmacy
Professor of Pharmacy Practice and Infectious Diseases

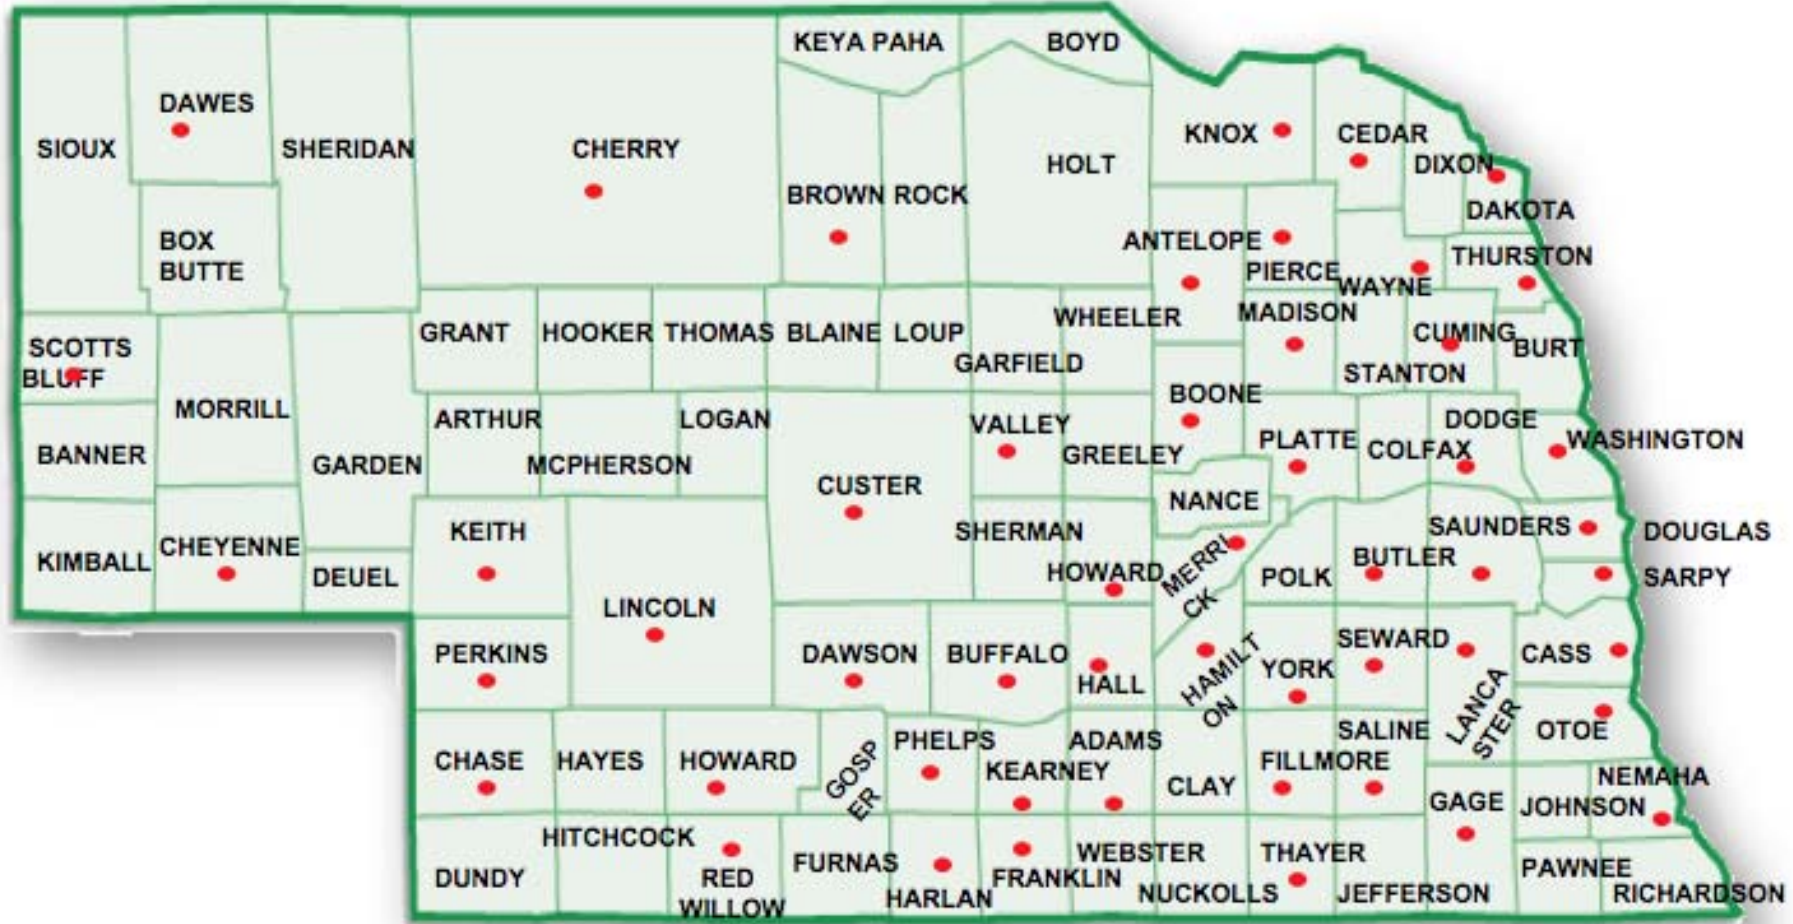

University of Nebraska Medical Center

- Composed of colleges of dentistry, medicine (includes school of allied health), nursing, pharmacy and public health, and the Nebraska Medical Center hospital.
- Extensive involvement with our urban and rural communities; UNMC graduates make up the majority of health care providers in rural NE; global engagement, particularly Caribbean, Africa, Asia and Europe.
- Health care areas of excellence include cancer, heart, neurological sciences and transplantation.
- Fall 2008 enrollment: 3194; pharmacy 267 (65 student/class).
- Operating budget (excluding NMC) of $511M, 76% self supporting. 4621 employees; > 9000 with NMC; 3rd largest employer in NE.
- Research: $100M/year
- Total economic impact: $1.5 billion; 17000 jobs in NE.

College of Pharmacy

- 32 full time faculty (includes 3 new hires arriving in 09-10); 8.5/1 professional student/faculty ratio; 2 departments; admin structure of dean, 2 assoc deans, 2 dept chairs.
- ACPE accreditation to Jan 30, 2013.
- Entering PharmD classes: 85% NE; 55% greater NE; 66% female; 5% minority; avg GPA 3.7.
- Graduating classes: 50% remain in NE; 67% take pharmacy practice positions; 23% post graduate; 10% other.
- Curricular changes: IPPE increased to 300 hours with entering class of 2008; 90 sem prereq hours required for fall 2010; 14 sem hours of electives in prof program.

UNMC COP Preceptor Sites

College of Pharmacy

- Board results, class of 2009: NAPLEX, 100% pass (avg 125); 70% of class is licensed in NE.
- COP workforce (excludes grad students): n=56, 28.6% minority, highest of all UNMC units.
- Research: #6 in NIH research funding per faculty FTE (AACP); highest ranked UNMC College.
- The Future - we will
 - ❖ Grow the faculty by 6 FTE by 2012-13;
 - ❖ Create a learning-centered pharmacy curriculum;
 - ❖ Enhance scholarly productivity, our culture of scholarship and commitment to improving human health;
 - ❖ Strengthen and expand engagement with our partners (rural to global); and will be recognized as
 - ❖ A preeminent College of Pharmacy.

Welcome to Omaha!

